Carl Melvey died at St Vincent Hospital in Sydney on Wednesday 21 September 2016.

The funeral will be held at 10:30am, Wednesday 28th September at St Anne's Catholic Church, 47 Mitchell Street, Bondi Beach.

Carl was a mainstay of the Australian cross country skiing community, a vigorous supporter of all skiing disciplines over the years and an unyielding champion of good sportsmanship and fair play.

Carl was colourful, boisterous, generous to a fault and he adored his family. And the cross country community adored him. He will be missed and remembered with huge affection.

In the most recent issue of the PHS Newsletter - Winter 2016, an article by Gus Hearl provides a wonderful insight into the man.

Herewith is a link to that Newsletter and the article commences on Page 8.Please send messages to Carl's family at <mailto:sales@dawntrading.com.au>Regards,
