Dear SLOPES Members and Associates

We have followed up Leesville Laundry to clarify their situation.

We have just been informed by them as follows:

1. at this stage linen will be collected as per normal
2. please deliver it to the freight shed for pick up tomorrow by them
3. they have sourced another laundry to process the linen for private customers as a work around

We suggest lodges which are customers of Leesville Laundry contact them directly regarding their arrangements.

The contact we have there is Kylie on 0412 593 942.

Subject: SLOPES: Snowy Mountains Laundry Jindabyne fire overnight - Urgent correction
To:

Dear SLOPES Members and Associates

Apologies.

To clarify, it is the Leesville Laundry in the Leesville Industrial Estate, Jindabyne that has burnt down overnight.

The separate Snowy Mountains Laundry, also based in the Leesville Industrial Estate at Jindabyne, was NOT affected by the fire and is still operating.

It has some capacity and the owners Mick and Bec are doing what they can to assist to assist in the circumstances.

They request that for now they are best contacted on email: mick@snowylaundry.com.au

Their website is here: <https://snowylaundry.com.au/>

Dear SLOPES Members and Associates

We have been informed this morning that the Snowy Mountains Laundry (also called the Leesville laundry) burnt down overnight and has ceased operations.

Their website is here: <https://snowylaundry.com.au/>

Many Clubs and commercial operators use the services of the Leesville Laundry.

It is the only commercial laundry we know of within practical range of the Perisher Range Resorts.

We are not aware of any alternative at this stage.

In the short term it seems that there is no choice other than to ask members and guests to bring their own laundry when staying in Lodges.

We will keep you informed.
